

When to use this form

Use this form to claim Farm Household Allowance.

It is a payment to support farmers facing financial hardship. It is able to be paid for up to 4 years in each specific 10 year period.

To receive Farm Household Allowance, we will work with you to develop and implement a Financial Improvement Agreement aimed at improving your farm's viability and strengthening your long term financial circumstances. We will assign you a Farm Household Case Officer who will help you with this.

In addition to the Farm Household Allowance payment, you may be able to receive vouchers for advice and training worth up to $10,000. A Farm Household Case Officer can help you access these vouchers.

If you need help to claim, you can call the Rural Financial Counselling Service on 1800 686 175.

Online account

Completing this form online is faster and easier.

Access your Centrelink online account through myGov and select:

- Payments and claims
- then Claims
- then Make a claim.

If you do not have a myGov account, you can create one at my.gov.au and then link Centrelink to it.

What else you will need to provide

You must complete and return an Income and Assets (SA369) form.

Refer to the checklist provided at Question 62 to see what else you need to provide.

You, and your partner if submitting a joint claim, may need to provide identity documents. For a list of acceptable documents, go to servicessaustralia.gov.au/identity

Important note: You must return all supporting documents at the same time you lodge this claim form. If you do not return all documents, your claim may not be accepted. The only exception will be if you are waiting for medical evidence or other documents from a third party.

What you must do

If your claim is granted, you will need to complete a Farm Financial Assessment. We will send you more information about this after your claim is granted.

For more information

Go to servicessaustralia.gov.au/farmhouseholdallowance or visit one of our service centres.

Call us on 132 316.

Information in your language

We can translate documents you need for your claim for free.

To speak to us in your language, call 131 202.

Call charges may apply.

Hearing and speech assistance

If you have a hearing or speech impairment, you can use:

- the National Relay Service 1800 555 660, or
- our TTY service on 1800 810 586. You need a TTY phone to use this service.

For more information about help with communication, go to servicessaustralia.gov.au and search 'other support and advice'.

Keep these Notes (pages 1 to 3) for your information.

Partner permitted to enquire

Allowing your partner to enquire on your behalf may save you time when dealing with us. It will let you and your partner use more self-service functions online and over the phone.

If you give your partner permission to enquire, it will allow your partner to ask questions about your Centrelink payments and services. They could ask us:

- your current rate of payment
- the reason your payment has stopped
- the reason your payment has gone up or down, for example, income and assets, debt and back payment information.

They can tell us how much employment income you were paid, changes in your circumstances and view your details online.

They cannot:

- act on your behalf with Centrelink
- apply for payments for you
- fill in and sign forms and statements on your behalf
- come to appointments for you.

You have a right to have your personal information kept private. For more information, go to servicessaustralia.gov.au/privacypolicy

Changing your partner's permission to enquire is your choice and you can change this permission at any time.

If you think your partner is misusing the arrangement, call 132 850 or visit one of our service centres.

If you are affected by family and domestic violence, there is help available. Call 132 850 Monday to Friday, 8am to 5pm local time, and ask to speak to a social worker. Otherwise, you can contact 1800RESPECT (1800 737 732), a 24 hour service. If you are in immediate danger, call 000. For more information, go to servicessaustralia.gov.au/domesticviolence

Definition of a partner

Business partner

A business partner is a person or entity who you operate a business partnership with.

A partnership is 2 or more people or entities operating a business with the intention of making a profit.

Partner

We consider you to have a partner and be a member of a couple if you are either:

- married
- in a registered relationship. This is when your relationship is registered under a law of a state or territory.
- in a de facto relationship. This is when you and your partner are in a marriage like relationship but you are not married or in a registered relationship.

We may still consider you a member of a couple if you are not actually living with your partner. For example, your partner may fly-in fly-out or live away for work, like military or oil rig workers.

For more information, go to servicessaustralia.gov.au/moc

Definition of non-farm income

Non-farm income is any income not earned from the relevant farm enterprise. Examples of non-farm income could include (but are not limited to):

- non-farm employment
- interest payments
- rental income (including leasing land for agricultural purposes) unless it is part of a directly related business.

It is important that you do not self-assess your eligibility. Call us on 132 316 for more information.

Example of assets

To receive Farm Household Allowance, you need to meet an assets test. Your combined personal and farm assets must be below $5.5 million. Assets include:

- farmland
- farm machinery
- livestock
- crops
- houses (excluding principal residence)
- home contents
- cash
- business bank accounts (including farm management deposits)
- other financial accounts.

Definition of forced disposal of livestock

Forced disposal of livestock means disposal (including killing) of livestock, or all or part of a carcass of livestock by an entity for 1 or more of the following reasons:

- an action by or on the authority of, the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory that means the land or water cannot be used to support the livestock commercially (for example, compulsory acquisition of an estate in land or other interest or changing a law governing how land or water may be used), other than an action taken with the entity's free consent
- drought or natural disaster affected the availability of pasture, fodder or water so that the entity could not reasonably support the livestock
- reasonable concern for the welfare of the livestock
- a requirement by or under a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory to dispose of the livestock.
