Community Support Program

The Community Support Program enables Australian community organisations, businesses, families and individuals to help people in humanitarian need start a new life in Australia.

Through the Community Support Program, you can support applicants and be matched with someone in need, help with a job offer, provide the skills necessary for someone looking for work or provide financial support. To participate, you must show that you can provide enough support to help new arrivals become financially self-sufficient within their first year in Australia.

Assurance of Support

What is an Assurance of Support?

An Assurance of Support is a commitment to provide adequate support to a person applying to migrate to Australia, so that the migrant will not have to rely on payments from Services Australia.

Giving an Assurance of Support

As an individual, you can support up to 4 adults at a time under the Community Support Program. This is in addition to the 2 adults you can support under the non-CSP Assurance of Support Scheme.

An adult is someone 18 or older at the time they lodge their claim for Assurance of Support. If there are more than 4 adults in the application, another person must give separate support.

An organisation can support up to 15 adults at a time under the Community Support Program. This is in addition to the 2 adults you can support under the non-CSP Assurance of Support Scheme.
