About this form

Use this form if you need assistance to pay your aged care costs.

This form collects details of your assets and expenses. Your fees and charges may be updated according to your individual circumstances.

Before completing this form

If your (and/or your partner's) personal or financial details have changed since receiving your fee advice letter, the outcome of your financial hardship claim will not be correct. To update your details, use your online account or call the Aged Care line on 1800 227 475 or Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA) on 1800 VETERAN (1800 838 372).

Other help available

The Home Equity Access Scheme lets older Australians who are Age Pension age or older get a voluntary non-taxable loan from us. To help you (and/or your partner) decide whether to apply, you should use the eligibility calculator at servicessaustralia.gov.au/homeequityaccess

If you registered for the Pension Bonus Scheme before 1 July 2014 and kept working, you may get a lump sum pension bonus payment.

We have Aged Care Specialist Officers (ACSOs) who provide in-depth information about your aged care option, including financial aspects of aged care. Go to servicessaustralia.gov.au/myagedcarefacetoface or call us on 1800 227 475 to find out if there is an ACSO near you, and to book an appointment. Staff in our service centres can also help you with general aged care information.

You can speak to a Financial Information Service Officer (FISO) who can help you understand your financial choices. Call us on 132 300 and say Financial Information Service when we ask why you are calling. For more information, go to servicessaustralia.gov.au/fis

From 1 January 2025, payments under the National Redress Scheme can be exempt from residential aged care means tests when self-disclosed. You can self-disclose using this form. For more information, go to nationalredress.gov.au

Eligibility for financial hardship assistance	Tick all that apply to you
You have already completed a calculation of your cost of care for home care or residential care. If you are applying for financial hardship for respite care, you have completed the calculation of your cost of care as if you were entering residential aged care.	<input type="checkbox"/>
You have assets valued at less than the current threshold (excluding any assets that cannot be sold or borrowed against). If you have paid a lump sum accommodation payment to a residential aged care home, this will be included in your assets. For more information, go to myagedcare.gov.au and search 'financial hardship assistance' or call us on 1800 227 475 .	<input type="checkbox"/>
You have not made gifts of more than: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $10,000 in the previous 12 months from the date you are claiming, or • $30,000 in the previous 5 years from the date you are claiming. Gifts include transferring ownership of an asset for less than its market value. Do not include the value of assets given away because of misappropriation by a third party.	<input type="checkbox"/>
For home care claims only , you started receiving care after 1 July 2014 . If you started receiving home care before 1 July 2014 , you can negotiate lower fees directly with your home care provider.	<input type="checkbox"/>
If you have ticked all the applicable boxes, continue to page 2.

If you have not ticked all the applicable boxes do not complete this form. You are not eligible for financial hardship.

Person signing on your behalf

This form must be signed by the person the application is for or someone who is authorised to sign on their behalf. An authorised person may be an Enduring Power of Attorney, Power of Attorney (financial), or a person/organisation holding an administrative or financial order.

A person can apply for an assessment for the cost of care on behalf of someone else if:

- they are already acting as the person's nominee
- they hold a power of attorney or guardianship order
- a letter from a doctor, nurse or similar health professional is provided stating that the customer is unable to sign the application form
- the application is made by the Director of Nursing at the aged care home where the customer is a resident.

Where the person is deceased only the executor of the will or a person holding letters of administration is authorised to sign on behalf of their estate.

Identity requirements

Power of Attorney or authorised person

The Power of Attorney or authorised person of the customer will need to provide photo identification in person at one of our service centres, agents or access points to have their identity verified. For example, a current Australian driver licence or valid passport can be provided – for a full list, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/identity

Authorised organisation staff

Staff from your authorised organisation will need to verify their identity details when they create their Provider Digital Access (PRODA) account to access nominee online services. For more information, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/proda

Collection of personal information

The collection of your (and/or your partner's) personal information on this form is voluntary. We collect this information for the purpose of making a financial hardship determination under section 52k-1 of the Aged Care Act 1997. A financial hardship determination specifies the maximum accommodation payment or accommodation contribution you may be charged. If you choose not to provide your personal information on this form, we will not make a financial hardship determination.

All information collected by Services Australia can be accessed:

- through your Centrelink online account by signing in to myGov
- by calling the Aged Care line on 1800 227 475 or DVA on 1800 VETERAN (1800 838 372).

Services Australia only shares information with other parties where you have agreed, or where the law allows or requires it. For more information, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/privacypolicy
