

Australian Victim of Terrorism Overseas Payment

Primary victim

(for a person 16 years or older)

May 2024 Bamyán, Afghanistan shooting

Purpose of this form

The Australian Victim of Terrorism Overseas Payment provides financial assistance to Australian residents who have been harmed as a direct result of the terrorist act that occurred on 17 May 2024 in Bamyán, Afghanistan.

Who is eligible for assistance?

A primary victim may be eligible for the Australian Victim of Terrorism Overseas Payment where:

- the person was an Australian resident at the time of the terrorist act
- the person was in the place where the terrorist act occurred
- the person was harmed as a direct result of the terrorist act, and
- the person, and the person's close family members, were not involved in the commission of the terrorist act.

How much will be paid?

Payment up to $75,000, depending on injuries, may be paid to the person who was injured.

What factors are taken into account when determining the Australian Victim of Terrorism Overseas Payment?

The following factors are taken into account when determining a primary victim claim:

- the nature of the injury or disease suffered as a direct result of the terrorist act
- the effect of the injury or disease on the person's life
- whether the person failed to take reasonable steps to avoid harm or acted recklessly when the terrorist act occurred
- whether there was travel advice on an Australian Government website advising against travelling to the foreign country, region or place where the terrorist act occurred
- whether the person was directed by an official of Australia or a foreign country to leave or not go to the place where the terrorist act occurred
- whether the person was in the place where the terrorist act occurred:
 - for a humanitarian purpose, or
 - on official business for the government of the Commonwealth, a state or territory, and
- whether the person has received financial assistance from a foreign country.

How long do I have to claim?

To receive the Australian Victim of Terrorism Overseas Payment, you must lodge your claim within 2 years of the date of the declaration of the payment.

For details of closing dates, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/avtop

How will payments be made?

Payments will be made to a bank, building society or credit union account held in your name. A joint account is acceptable. If you do not have an account, call us on 1800 040 226 about alternative arrangements. If you are outside Australia, call (+61 3) 9250 5159.

What else will I need to provide?

Before you can get paid, we may contact you and ask you to confirm your identity. If you are required to confirm your identity, you will need to provide one document from each of these categories:

- Commencement of identity (for example, an Australian passport, birth or citizenship certificate)
- Primary use in community (for example, a driver licence or proof of age card)
- Secondary use in community (for example, an ATM/bank card or educational certificate).

For a list of acceptable documents, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/identity

If you have any difficulty in obtaining or providing these documents, you should call us on 1800 040 226 or if you are outside Australia, call (+61 3) 9250 5159, as soon as possible.

You may also be asked to provide other information, but this will be discussed with you as your claim is assessed.

Change of circumstances

If there are any changes in your circumstances, you should call us on 1800 040 226 or if you are outside Australia, call (+61 3) 9250 5159 within 14 days of the change(s) occurring.

Definition of key terms

Australian residence requirements

You are an Australian resident (as defined by the Social Security Act 1991) if you are living in Australia and you are one of the following:

- an Australian citizen
- a permanent residence visa holder
- a protected Special Category visa holder.

For more information, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/residencedescriptions

Close family member

The following are a person's close family member:

- the person's partner
- the person's child
- the person's parent (including legal guardian – see below for definition)
- the person's sibling.

Legal guardian

Section 4 of the Family Law Act 1975 provides:

- Guardian, includes a person who has been granted (whether alone or jointly with another person or persons) guardianship of the child under the law of the Commonwealth or of a state or territory.

Direct result (harmed)

For the purposes of the assessment of Australian Victim of Terrorism Overseas Payment claims, the following elements are to be considered when assessing that a person was harmed as a direct result – injuries and/or medical conditions which:

- were caused by the terrorist act
- would not have developed without the terrorist act
- were pre-existing and were aggravated as a result of the terrorist act, or
- on the balance of probability, have resulted from the terrorist act.

Financial assistance

For the purposes of the Australian Victim of Terrorism Overseas Payment, financial assistance refers to the amount of any financial assistance received from a foreign country for an injury arising from the terrorist act (other than financial assistance for economic loss resulting from the injury).

Injuries or harmed

For the purposes of the Australian Victim of Terrorism Overseas Payment, injuries or harmed includes any physical or psychological injury suffered as a direct result of a declared overseas terrorist act.

In the place

For the purposes of this payment, 'in the place' means:

- in close proximity to the place where the terrorist act occurred, and
- experienced the terrorist act first hand.

A person is in close proximity to the place where the terrorist act occurred if they were close enough to be physically injured or killed by that act.

Experienced the terrorist act first hand means being present, and personally seeing or perceiving the terrorist act direct from the original source.

People who went to the place where the terrorist act occurred immediately following the act to assist victims are considered to be 'in the place' for the purposes of Australian Victim of Terrorism Overseas Payment. This would include arriving at the scene of the act before the victim was moved to another location.

Involved in the commission of the terrorist act

For the purposes of the Australian Victim of Terrorism Overseas Payment, a person was involved in the commission of the terrorist act if the person:

- aided, abetted, counselled or procured the terrorist act
- induced the terrorist act, whether through threats or promises, or otherwise
- was in any way (directly or indirectly) knowingly concerned in, or a party to, the terrorist act, or
- conspired with others to effect the terrorist act.

Terrorist act

For the purposes of the Australian Victim of Terrorism Overseas Payment, the terrorist act refers to the overseas terrorist acts declared by the Prime Minister of Australia.
